Good Morning Mrs. Thompson,

In order to comply with the four-year Unitary Status Plan (USP), developed as part of the U.S. District Court consent decree, I sent President Tyree a proposed model (see attached) to meet our USP requirements and still support our ELLs with English Language Development. I have not heard anything regarding this request. Would you be able to update me on the status of this request?

Any help would be greatly appreciated.

Good Morning Ignacio,

I cannot answer your first question, however, I have copied Cindy Daniels, Director of Move On When Reading, who will be able to help. Your second question regarding the two years, that has been defined as 18 months of instruction.

I hope this information is helpful, please do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions.
Kelly

Good Morning Kelly,

Questions on move on when reading:

USP V.F.1.k

- How will students be identified for exemption? Will this be provided to LEA's?
- Less than two years means calendar years or school years?

I forgot who the contact person was for Move On When Reading for OELAS .

Thanks,

Ignacio
