Thrive Generations, Inc. is a local 501(c)(3) that is partnering with TUSD's African American Student Services to offer CHOICES: A Leadership Training Program. The goal of CHOICES is to help middle and high school students build the capacity to make healthy, logical decisions that will benefit their future and our community. CHOICES will provide participants with a free, eight-week program that will meet once per week for two hours and will include a healthy meal and a physical activity.
