I am not interested because I am content teaching ELD. As a former bilingual teacher, I found finding materials in Spanish to be extremely difficult.

I tried applying for positions but was told I did not meet requirement as I was not currently using my credentials in a TWDL school or class yet I used my expertise in the field of teaching ELA using ELD and Dual Language strategies. Furthermore, although I am sent emails from Mark Alvarez requesting participation and I sign up for TUSD TWDL conferences and applying for positions I am notified that I do not qualify BECAUSE, according to whomever is in charge of sifting through applications feels I am not highly qualified. Sra Jean DeAndrea has even asked me to return but to no avail by the district. I would love to teach in a bilingual classroom again but your methods have not been welcoming.
