TUCSON UNIFIED
SCHOOL DISTRICT

2016-17 Code of Conduct
including parent and student rights

DRAFT

This Code of Conduct was written by a diverse group of Tucson Unified School District stakeholders, including parents, students, teachers, administrators, school support staff, and other community members. It was informed by the perspective of nearly 150 other district employees and community members that participated in school discipline focus groups. It represents a collective, community-wide perspective on how school discipline should be handled in our schools.

PART 1: INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Tucson Unified School District, where every student has the right to a high-quality education that includes a full and equal opportunity to:

- Develop their mind, personality, and talents;
- Fulfill their potential;
- Achieve their goals;
- Improve the quality of their lives; and
- Graduate from high school prepared for college, living-wage employment, and thoughtful and responsible citizenship.

Tucson Unified School District is committed to providing these opportunities for every single student who attends one of our schools. As part of this commitment, we must ensure that every school has a safe, positive, and supportive school climate in which students and educators can thrive. The foundation of this effort is the expectation that district employees will: (1) ensure that students are engaged and challenged by well-rounded, culturally-relevant instruction; (2) prioritize the development of strong relationships with every student; (3) be aware of, and responsive to, the full array of students' academic, social, emotional, and physical needs, including the impact of crises, trauma, and other challenges our students face at home and in the community; (4) commit to ongoing teaching and reinforcement of positive student behaviors; (5) focus on the prevention of negative student behaviors through effective classroom management and campus management strategies; and (6) model the appropriate behaviors we want students to emulate.

Similarly, we ask that parents and guardians take responsibility for supporting students in following the Six Bs: (1) Be present; (2) Be on time; (3) Be prepared; (4) Be kind; (5) Believe in yourself; and (6) Do your Best.

These commitments, from every member of the school community, are the essential building blocks of the high-quality learning environments we must create for our students.

Additionally, our commitment to our students' demands that we use developmentally appropriate disciplinary methods that are applied fairly and equitably. Research shows that the frequent use of harsh school disciplinary measures such as out-of-school suspensions, expulsions, and arrests or referrals to the juvenile justice system fails to create safer schools or promote school success. Instead, it causes severe, long-term harm to students, families, and the entire community while creating unhealthy school environments in which it is more difficult for students to learn and for educators to teach. Therefore, we are committed to using such measures only when they are necessary to protect the safety of members of the school community or in response to persistent misconduct where appropriate.

As outlined in the sections below, all of our disciplinary methods are targeted at promoting the success of every one of our students and supporting the creation of healthy, safe, and productive learning environments that will benefit all members of the school community. This will require a collaborative effort among students, parents/guardians, and all Tucson Unified School District employees. By working together as a community, we can create the excellent and equitable schools that will strengthen our city and provide each of our students with the education they deserve.

PART 2: THE SCHOOL DISCIPLINARY PROCESS

Our commitment to meeting the needs of all Tucson Unified School District students requires that we have high expectations for every member of the school community. That includes having high behavioral expectations. Thus, our school disciplinary process is guided by the following standard:

In Tucson Unified School District, every student, parent/guardian, teacher, administrator, and school staff person is expected to:

- 1. Treat all members of the school community with respect.*
- 2. Conduct themselves in a responsible manner that does not interfere with any student's right to learn and does not jeopardize the safety or well-being of any member of the school community.*
- 3. Respect the property of others, and of the school.*

Each school principal has the responsibility to ensure that every member of the school community understands these expectations and is supported in meeting them. School principals may also adopt additional rules or behavioral expectations that are consistent with the approach of this policy.

If, as part of the learning process, students fall short of meeting behavioral expectations or violate school rules, it is each school's responsibility to use the disciplinary process to help them learn the skills needed to become successful and responsible students and adults. Following such misbehavior, school personnel shall investigate the circumstances and gather facts as necessary to determine the appropriate response. Students shall always be allowed to respond and provide their perspective on the incident. School behavioral expectations and rules are applicable during regular school hours, while students are being transported on the school bus, and at times and places where school administrators have jurisdiction over students, including, but not necessarily limited to school-sponsored events, field trips, athletic functions, going to and from school, and other activities. Additionally, school principals are authorized to use the disciplinary responses described in Table One when a student's misconduct away from school (including on social media) has a detrimental effect on other students or on the learning environment.

If it is determined that one or more disciplinary responses are needed, schools may choose from among the options in Table One below (exceptions for persistent misconduct or behaviors that create a continuing threat to members of the school community are discussed on pages 5-10 below).

Disciplinary responses should always meet the following criteria:

- They should be designed to address the root cause of the student's behavior, which may include academic difficulties; unmet social, emotional, or physical needs; challenges at home or in the community; or inter-personal conflicts with other students or school staff, among others.
- They should address the needs of the student who engaged in the misconduct, the needs of those who were affected by the misconduct, and the needs of the overall school community.
- They should be structured to maximize productive teaching and learning time and minimize the amount of time that students are removed from their classrooms.
- They should include meaningful instruction and guidance to assist students in taking responsibility for their actions, learning from their mistakes, and becoming successful learners and positive contributors to the school community.
- They should be reasonable, age-appropriate, and applied equitably.

Table One
Disciplinary Responses

(Note: Not all of the items listed below will be available at every school.)

Level A: Classroom Responses (Note: they may also be used by other school personnel in response to behaviors outside of the classroom on school campuses)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Reminders of rules and expectations * Re-direction of behavior * Teaching or re-teaching of expectations and skills or replacement behaviors * Teacher/student conference * Restorative dialogue * Written or verbal apology * Reflective essay or other reflective activity * Independent study * Role-play * In-class, impromptu restorative circle * Modification of instruction * In-class “cool down” * Structured breaks * Parent/guardian outreach 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Check-in/check-out * Morning meetings * Seat change * Self-charting of behaviors * Daily report card on behavior, task completion, and achievement * Student/teacher/parent conference * Team building exercises * Group or classroom restorative circles * Victim-offender dialogue * Teacher mentor * Referral to support staff (e.g., guidance counselor, social worker, psychologist, or nurse) * Other similar, non-exclusionary responses, as needed
Level B: School Support Staff Responses (e.g., Counselors, Psychologists, Social Workers, Student Equity Success Specialists, Special Education Case Managers, Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) Teams)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Any of the responses listed above * Parent shadowing * Student/teacher/support staff/parent conference * Out-of-classroom “cool down” (no more than one hour) * Loss of privileges (e.g., exclusion from group lunch or extra activities) * Mini-course/training (e.g., conflict resolution, anger management, social skills, or appropriate behavior) * Adult/student lunches * Mediation (including peer mediation) * Short-term behavioral progress reports * Behavioral or academic coaching * Referral to afterschool program * Anger management group or training 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Mentoring (with peers, community members, or other school staff) * Functional Behavioral Assessment/Behavioral Intervention Plan * Home visit * Referral to community-based services * Substance abuse harm reduction program, education, or counseling (in-house or outside referral) * Modification of IEP or 504 plan (if applicable) * Restorative community service (not to include manual labor) * Life Skills training * Teen court/peer jury * Other similar, non-exclusionary responses, as needed
Level C: School Administrator Responses	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Any of the responses listed above * Student/administrator or student/administrator/parent conference * In-school suspension or In-School Intervention (ISI) * Family/community restorative conference * Restitution * Abeyance contract (not to include out-of-school suspensions, alternative education placements, expulsions, or referrals to law enforcement as a consequence) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Change in schedule/class (including per Article 14 of the Consensus Agreement with TEA) * Detention (before/after school; lunch) * Saturday School * Other similar, non-exclusionary responses, as needed * Out-of-school suspensions, alternative education placements, expulsions, and referrals to law enforcement (to be used only in accordance with the Persistent Misconduct Process and/or the Safe Schools Protocol)

In making these decisions, priority should be given to addressing student misbehavior through Level A responses whenever possible. When behaviors cannot be adequately addressed through Level A responses, school support staff may be involved and may use Level B responses, or school administrators¹ may be involved and use Level C responses, as appropriate.

For example, if a student acts in a manner that is disrespectful toward a teacher, another student, or any other member of the school community, school personnel may choose to use a disciplinary response (or responses) from Levels A, B, or C, depending upon the severity of the incident and the surrounding context, such as the developmental level of the student, the root causes of the incident, whether the incident is part of a pattern of behavior, and whether the student is willing to take responsibility for, and repair the harm caused by, the incident. The emphasis should be on addressing the incident promptly and appropriately, and ensuring that all affected persons are supported as necessary to create the high-quality learning environments needed in schools.

When student behavior has caused, or contributed to, an emotional, violent, or potentially violent situation, the disciplinary response(s) chosen should prioritize a de-escalation of the conflict.

School personnel shall attempt to collaborate with students' parents/guardians² in addressing all significant disciplinary concerns. Additionally, for all disciplinary incidents not resolved with a Level A response, school personnel shall promptly attempt to call the student's parents/guardians to notify them of the student's behavior and the disciplinary responses that were used. The student's parents/guardians shall also be invited to discuss the relevant circumstances with the appropriate staff member and, if applicable, shall be invited to participate in the process of addressing the behavior. If the school's initial attempts to contact the parents/guardians are unsuccessful, they shall still ensure that the parents/guardians are notified and invited to participate in the process, if applicable, through additional phone calls, email, or, as a last resort, a letter.

Language Access

Students and their parents/guardians are entitled to an interpreter or translator when needed at any step of the disciplinary process.

Persistent Misconduct

If, during the school disciplinary process, it is determined that: (a) a student has exhibited a consistent pattern of misbehavior; (b) the documented disciplinary responses used have failed to effectively address and correct the behavior; and (c) the behavior is creating a substantial disruption to the learning environment or resulting in significant academic decline by that student, the school administrator or their designee shall take the following steps:

1. Engage the student's parents/guardians.
 - a. Schools shall attempt to call the student's parents/guardians to notify them of the persistent misconduct promptly upon the three conditions listed above being met. The parents/guardians shall also be invited to participate in the process outlined below.
 - b. If the school's initial attempts to contact the parents/guardians are unsuccessful, they shall still ensure that the parents/guardians are notified and invited to participate in the process outlined below through additional phone calls, email, or, as a last resort, a letter.

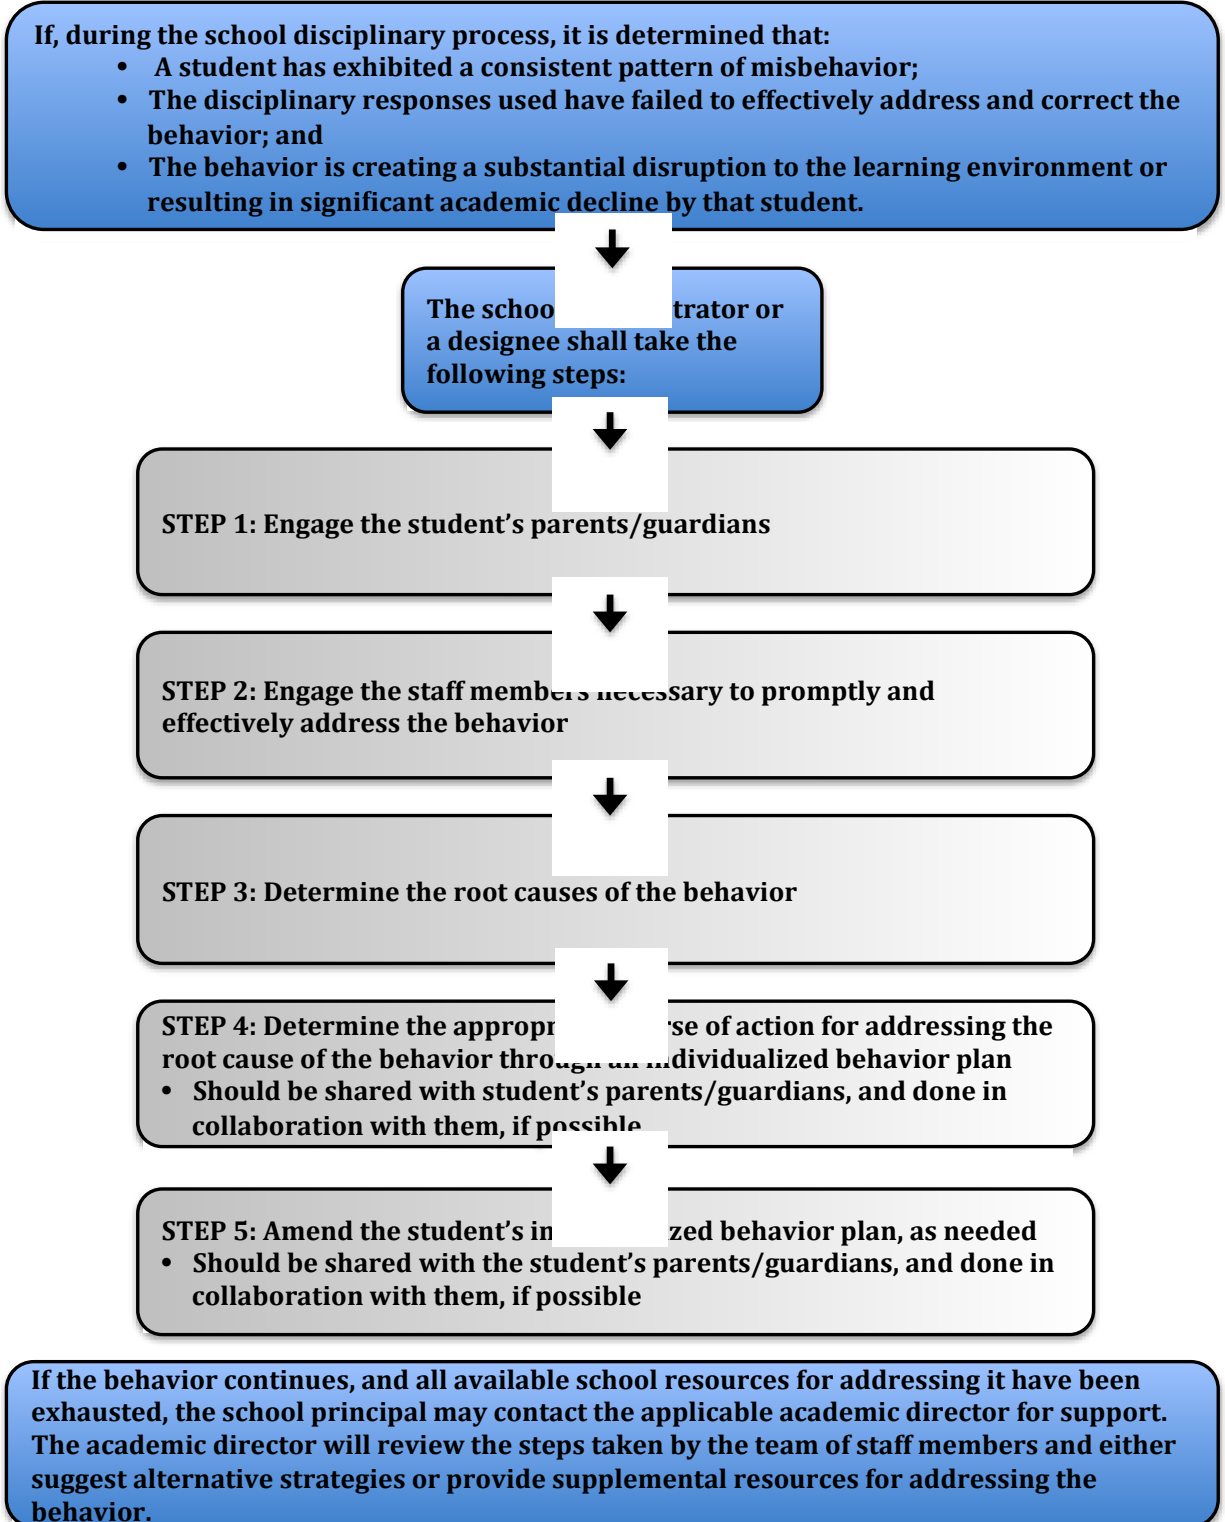

¹ "School administrator," when used in this policy, refers to principals, assistant principals, and deans of students.

² Throughout this policy, the requirements affecting parents and guardians shall only apply when applicable, i.e., they shall not apply when a student does not have a legal guardian.

2. Engage the staff members necessary to promptly and effectively address the behavior.
 - a. This may involve a combination of administrators, teachers, and support staff (e.g., counselors, psychologists, social workers, Student Equity Success Specialist, special education case managers, MTSS coordinators).
 - b. This role may be filled by each school's MTSS team.
3. Determine the root causes of the behavior.
 - a. The team of staff members shall conduct an analysis of the underlying causes of the student's behavior. They shall consider the full range of possible root causes, including academic difficulties; unmet social, emotional, or physical needs; challenges at home or in the community; or inter-personal conflicts with other students or school staff, among others.
 - b. This may involve completing a Functional Behavioral Assessment.
4. Determine the appropriate course of action for addressing the root cause of the behavior, in collaboration with the student's parents/guardians, if possible.
 - a. The team of staff members shall develop an individualized behavior plan for addressing the underlying causes of the behavior, meeting the student's needs, and supporting the student in becoming a successful learner and positive contributor to the school community. This may involve completing a Behavioral Intervention Plan.
 - b. This individualized behavior plan may include one or more disciplinary responses from Table One.
 - c. There shall be an emphasis on creating and implementing this plan in a timely fashion both for the student's benefit and to limit disruptions to the learning environment. Interventions provided as part of the plan must be documented.
 - d. The team of staff members shall promptly share this plan with the student's parents/guardians through email, if available. If email is unavailable, a copy of the plan shall be mailed to the parents/guardians.
5. Amend the student's individualized behavior plan, as needed, in collaboration with the student's parents/guardians, if possible.
 - a. Schools shall adapt the strategies they are using in response to any changes in the student's needs or behaviors, using the full array of school and community resources available to them.
 - b. All changes shall be promptly shared with the student's parents/guardians through email, if available. If email is unavailable, a copy of the revised plan shall be mailed to the parents/guardians.

If, after these steps are taken, the behavior continues, and the team of staff members determines that all available school resources for addressing it have been exhausted, the school principal may contact the applicable academic director for support. The academic director will review the steps taken by the team of staff members and either suggest alternative strategies or provide supplemental resources for addressing the behavior, which may include more intensive in-school support services for students who have routinely caused extreme disruptions to the learning environment.

Summary of Persistent Misconduct Process

Safe Schools Protocol

The vast majority of disciplinary incidents should be addressed using the procedures described above. However, there may be rare instances in which student behavior creates a continuing threat to members of the school community, in which case school administrators have the responsibility to ensure the well-being of every member of the school community.³ In determining whether there is a continuing threat to members of the school community, school administrators shall apply the following principles:

- The continuing threat to members of the school community may be a generalized threat to other individuals within the school community or it may be a specific threat to one or more individuals.
- The analysis should be prospective (or forward-looking), not retrospective (or backward-looking). In other words, instead of determining whether a student should be suspended as a consequence for their behavior, school administrators should assess whether there is a risk to members of the school community posed by a student being allowed to stay on school campus.
 - Note that some student behaviors may threaten members of the school community in the moment but the student need not be removed from campus to ensure that there is no continuing threat. In such cases, out-of-school suspensions should not be used.
- The threat must not be overly speculative or distant. Instead, there must be a legitimate threat of imminent, physical harm to another member of the school community.
- Creating non-violent schools is critical to the promotion of student success, and thus violence of any sort will be swiftly addressed and an out-of-school suspension may be necessary to protect members of the school community. Minor aggressive acts and interpersonal conflicts between students do not rise to the level of creating a continuing threat to members of the school community and are most effectively and appropriately de-escalated and/or resolved using other disciplinary responses from Table One. ~~However, conduct that meets both the definition of “fighting” and the definition of “assault” and has the key characteristics of “assault” may lead to a continuing threat to the students involved or to the campus in general due to the atmosphere created by those actions. Therefore, such conduct may be remediated with a three-day out of school suspension followed by a one-day in-school intervention in order to mediate and restore the students back into the school community in order to protect student safety. Students who engage in such conduct a second time during the school year may be assigned to the District Alternative Educational Program (DAEP) as an alternative to a long term suspension for no more than twenty days. Elementary aged students are not subject to DAEP.~~
- The use or possession of drugs or alcohol in school is clearly inconsistent with the creation of the healthy, safe, and productive learning environments that students need, and thus is strictly prohibited. Additionally, offenses involving the distribution of, or intent to distribute, drugs or alcohol within the school community represent an obvious continuing threat to members of the school community, and an out-of-school suspension may be necessary to protect threats to members of the school community. However, offenses involving the use or possession of drugs or alcohol, when there is no evidence of distribution or intent to distribute, typically do not rise to the level of creating a continuing threat to members of the school community.⁴ In those instances, once the drugs or alcohol are confiscated, the most effective strategies for addressing student needs and promoting drug and alcohol-free schools are included within the other disciplinary responses in Table One.

³ The types of behaviors that may, depending on the circumstances, create a continuing threat to members of the school community that necessitates an out-of-school suspension include, but are not limited to, violence against another person, distributing or selling alcohol or drugs (including prescription medication), the possession or use of weapons, sexual assault, credible threats of harm or violence, and fire-setting or the use of explosives. Note that there shall never be a presumption that these, or any other, behaviors create a continuing threat to members of the school community that necessitates an out-of-school suspension. Instead, all such incidents shall result in school administrators following the School Safety Protocol outlined below.

⁴ Even when a student under the influence of drugs or alcohol does pose a threat to members of the school community, the appropriate response is to refer that student to a parent/guardian, school nurse, or other staff member who can ensure the safety of that student and all other members of the school community until the effects of the drugs or alcohol have subsided, the safety threat has passed, and other disciplinary responses from Table One can be pursued.

If, after making all reasonable efforts to de-escalate the situation (if applicable), investigating the circumstances, gathering the relevant facts, and hearing the student's perspective on the incident, the school administrator determines that there is a continuing threat to members of the school community, the following protocol shall be followed:

1. The school administrator shall determine whether one or more of the disciplinary responses from Table One can effectively address the threat. For example, many such threats can be resolved through a student/administrator conference, parental outreach/engagement, out-of-classroom "cool down," one of the restorative options, or In-School Intervention/in-school suspension.
2. If it is determined that the disciplinary responses described above are inadequate to effectively address the threat and that the student must be removed from the school environment to avoid a continuing threat to members of the school community, the administrator may issue an out-of-school suspension (see Board Policy JK-R1 for more information).
 - a. Schools are responsible for ensuring that any disciplinary consequences are in accordance with students' individualized education programs (IEPs), Behavior Intervention Plans, and 504 plans. Prior to a student with an IEP or 504 being suspended out-of-school, school administrators shall consult with the student's case manager, the school psychologist, or the Exceptional Education Department Chair. A student with an IEP or 504 plan is entitled to a manifestation determination review prior to being suspended out-of-school for more than 10 cumulative days in a school year (see Board Policy JK for more information).
 - b. Only in extraordinary circumstances shall a student in elementary-school grades be suspended out-of-school.⁵
 - c. Note that Article 14-4 of the Consensus Agreement with TEA may impose additional requirements under certain circumstances.
3. The out-of-school suspension must be limited in length to the greatest extent possible. For example, many continuing threats to members of the school community can be effectively addressed through a one-to-three-day out-of-school suspension, which often function as a "cooling-off" period.
 - a. One or more disciplinary responses from Table One may also be used in conjunction with the out-of-school suspension.
4. If the school administrator determines that an out-of-school suspension of longer than three days is necessary to address the safety threat, a safety plan must be developed for resolving the threat during the period of the student's suspension and limiting the exclusion of the student to the greatest extent possible. This plan, which shall be developed by the school administrator or a designee, must include strategies for addressing the root cause of the student's behavior, preventing future harm, restoring relationships, addressing the needs of any victims of the student's actions, and addressing the suspended student's ongoing social, emotional, and academic needs, including the successful re-engagement of the student in the school once they return from their suspension. The plan may include one or more disciplinary responses listed in Table One.
 - a. The creation of this plan may involve additional school personnel such as counselors, psychologists, social workers, Student Equity Success Specialists, special education case managers, and MTSS Teams.
5. Any out-of-school suspension longer than three days must first be reviewed by the academic director or a designee as soon as possible, but no later than the first three days of the suspension, to ensure the consequence is warranted under District discipline policy. The academic director will review the situation to determine if there are alternative strategies or supplemental resources that could effectively address the safety threat.

⁵ "Extraordinary circumstances" refers to the rare situations in which a student has committed a serious disciplinary violation – such as using, or attempting to use, a dangerous weapon, intentionally causing a serious injury to another member of the school community, distributing drugs or alcohol, or another offense of similar gravity – and there is no viable strategy for returning that student to the school without jeopardizing members of the school community. See footnote 7 for the definition of "serious physical injury."

6. If the school administrator issues an out-of-school suspension, there must be a prompt attempt to notify the student's parents/guardians by phone. Additionally, within 24 hours of the out-of-school suspension being issued, a notice shall be emailed (if available) and mailed to parents that notifies them of the following: (a) the incident and any relevant circumstances around it; (b) why the incident created a continuing threat to members of the school community; (c) why an out-of-school suspension was necessary to protect members of the school community; (d) which, if any, other disciplinary responses were used to address the threat; (e) the components of the plan from Step #4 above; (f) the parents'/guardians' right to a conference with the principal; and (g) the parents'/guardians' right to appeal the out-of-school suspension. A copy of the notice shall also be provided to the district office.⁶
7. Long-term out-of-school suspensions (between 11 and 180 days) and expulsions are reserved for circumstances in which (a) the student has intentionally caused a serious physical injury to another member of the school community or intentionally placed another member of the school community at significant risk of serious physical injury;⁷ and (b) there is no viable strategy for returning that student to the school within 10 days without jeopardizing the safety of members of the school community, or it is otherwise required by federal law. To make a recommendation for a long-term out-of-school suspension or expulsion, the school principal or designee must provide written documentation to the applicable academic director that includes the rationale for the recommended consequence, an explanation of why alternative strategies are inadequate to protect members of the school community, and the components of the plan from Step #4 above (unless the recommendation is for expulsion). The academic director will review the situation to determine if there are alternative strategies or supplemental resources that could effectively address the safety threat. All recommendations for long-term out-of-school suspensions or expulsions must be approved by the superintendent or a designee before a formal hearing is held. In all circumstances, student exclusion shall be limited in duration to the greatest extent possible. See Board Policies JK-R2 and JK-R3 for more information. Note that students with IEPs are entitled to receive educational services during long-term suspensions or expulsions.
8. To promote the continuous improvement of school practices, every out-of-school suspension, expulsion, school-based arrest or referral to the juvenile justice system will be subsequently reviewed by the school's team (MTSS, PBIS, or Discipline) in collaboration with any other relevant school personnel. The goals of these reviews will be to investigate the root causes of the disciplinary incidents and determine whether they and the resulting consequences could have been prevented or mitigated through alternative practices beforehand. These reviews shall be non-punitive.

Notes:

A student who willingly encourages, assists, or forces another student to commit a violation of these guidelines may be held accountable, subject to the limitations stated in this Code. This does not include bystanders or passive observers, but includes actions such as encouraging fights and posting fights on social media.

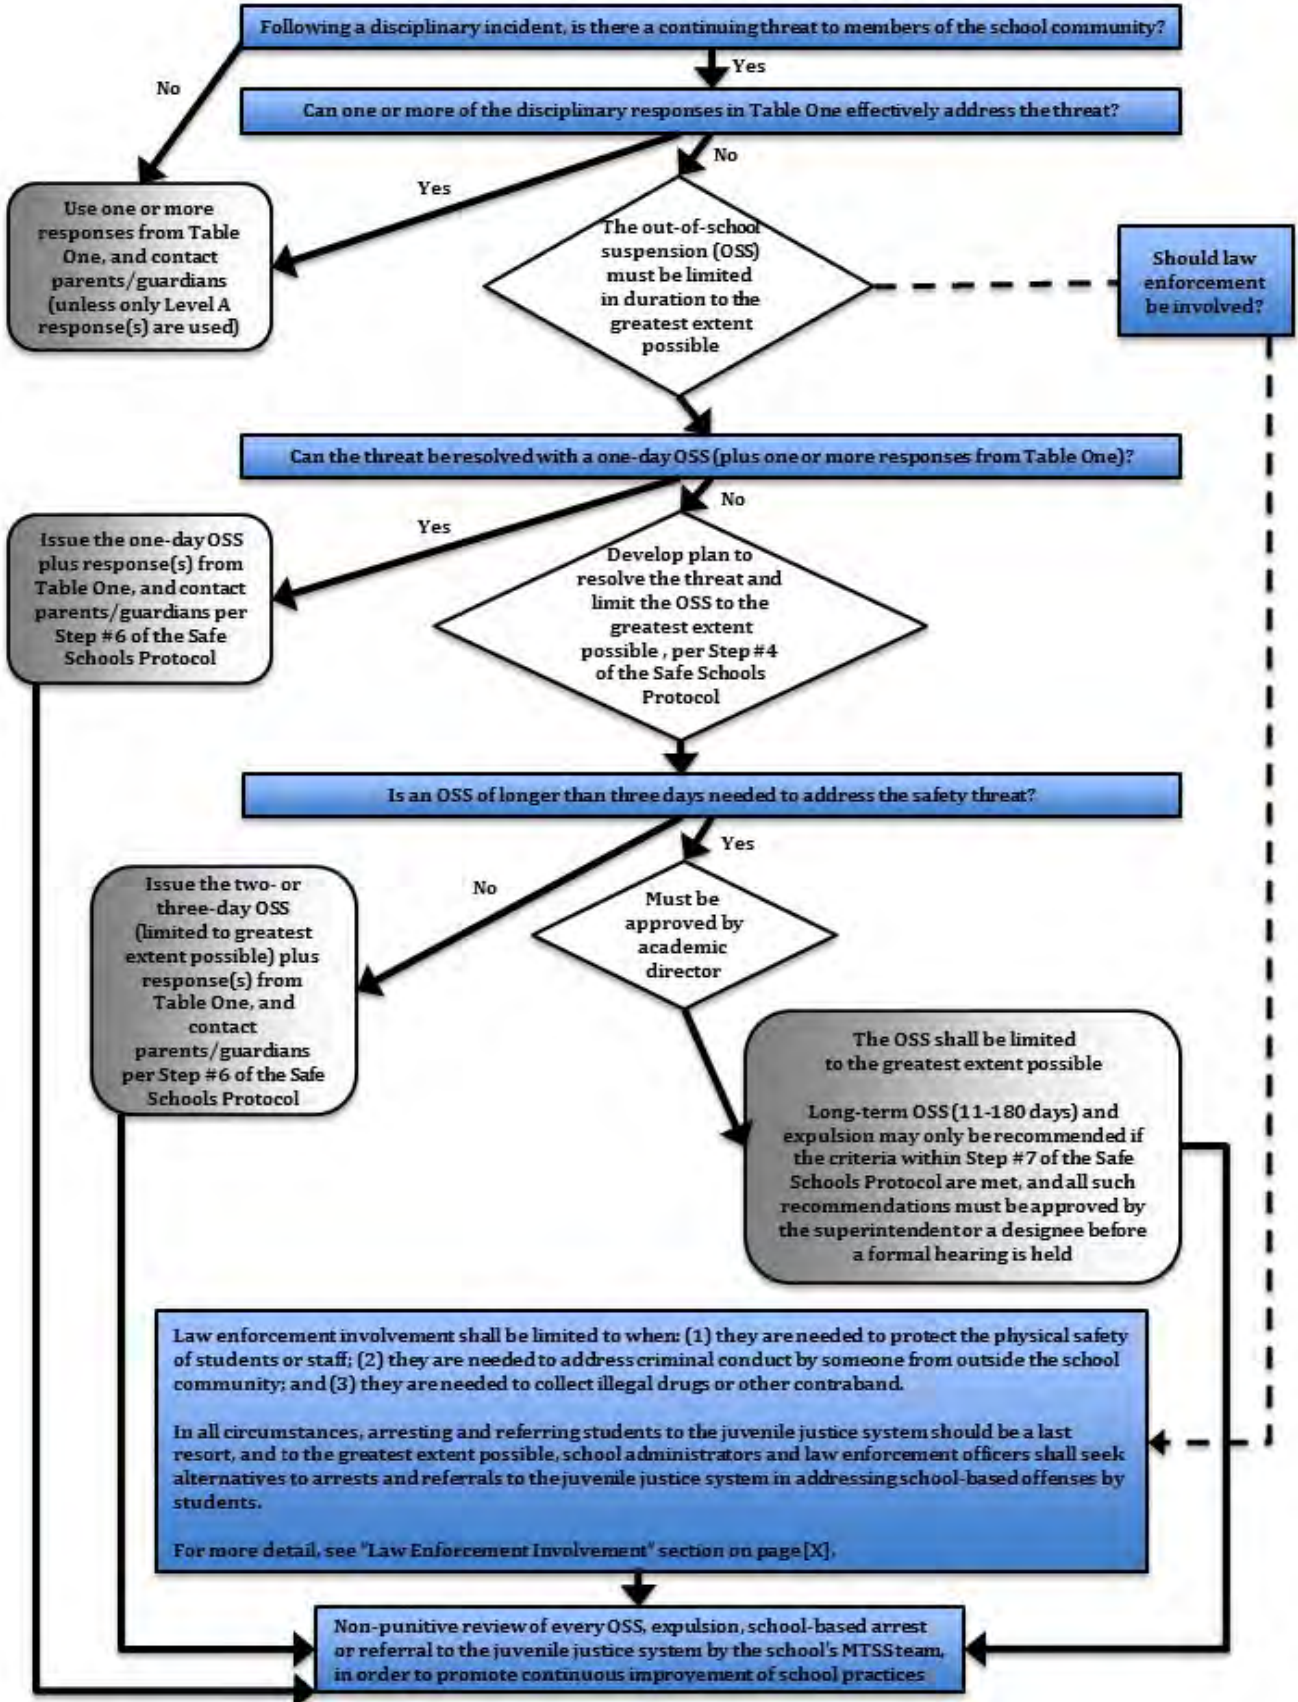

Administrators will determine the appropriate Action to take for an attempted violation (where a student takes steps to engage in a violation but for some reason is stopped from completing the violation), subject to the limitations stated in this Code.

For suspensions, administrators must communicate with Student Equity immediately after the suspension is recorded. Student Equity will review all suspensions as part of the district process for tracking discipline data.

⁶ "District office," when used throughout this policy, refers to the district's central administrative office at 1010 E. 10th Street.

⁷ "Serious physical injury" is an impairment of physical condition that interferes with a student's ability to receive instruction, and is the type of injury that would reasonably require external medical attention.

Summary of Safe Schools Protocol

Law Enforcement Involvement

Law enforcement involvement in school disciplinary incidents shall be limited to the following circumstances: (1) when they are needed to protect the physical safety of students or staff; (2) when they are needed to address criminal conduct by someone from outside the school community; (3) when they are needed to collect illegal drugs or other contraband that has been confiscated by an administrator or school employee and (4) as required by Arizona law (see chart below). Law enforcement involvement shall not be requested in a situation that can be safely and appropriately handled by school staff.

In all circumstances, it is the position of the Tucson Unified School District that arresting and referring students to the juvenile justice system should be a last resort. School administrators shall comply with state law in providing notification of incidents to law enforcement, but they shall not refer students to law enforcement for arrest or referral to the juvenile justice system unless there are no other options for addressing a continuing threat to members of the school community. Only under extraordinary circumstances (or as required by Arizona law, see chart below) shall a student in elementary- or middle-school grades be referred to law enforcement for arrest or referral to the juvenile justice system. (See footnote 6 for the definition of “extraordinary circumstances”).

School resource officers based on Tucson Unified School District campuses shall exercise their authority to arrest and refer students to the juvenile justice system in a manner that is consistent with the goals and requirements of this policy, and to the greatest extent possible, shall seek alternatives to arrests and referrals to the juvenile justice system in addressing school-based offenses by students. Examples may include a conversation with the student about their actions, a verbal warning, parental outreach/engagement, a “cool-down” period, one of the restorative options, In-School Intervention/in-school suspension, mediation, referral to teen court/peer jury, detention, referral to school support staff or community-based services, or mentoring opportunities. When other, non-school-based law enforcement officers are in a school responding to an incident involving a student, school administrators shall work collaboratively with them to seek such alternatives to arrests and referrals to the juvenile justice system.

If law enforcement officers do speak with, attempt to speak with, issue a citation to, or arrest a student in connection with a school-based incident, a school administrator shall promptly call the student’s parents/guardians. If the initial attempt is unsuccessful, the school administrator or designee shall make all reasonable efforts to notify the parents/guardians as quickly as possible. Certain criminal behavior must be reported to appropriate law enforcement agencies due to Arizona’s mandatory reporting laws. Any school district staff member is required to report the following incidents:

Aggravated Assault resulting in serious physical injury	Homicide
Any dangerous crime against minors	Kidnapping
Armed Robbery	Possession, use, sale, or attempted sale of illegal drugs
Arson of an occupied structure	Sexual Assault
Bomb threats	Sexual conduct with a minor under 15 years of age
Burglary in the first degree	Use or threat to use a deadly weapon/dangerous instrument
Additionally, pursuant to A.R.S. § 13-3620, school personnel are required to immediately report any reasonable belief of non-accidental physical injury, neglect, or sexually related offense against a minor.

Discipline and Student Academics

Students shall not be punished or penalized academically as a result of disciplinary action. Regardless of the disciplinary consequence, students shall be provided the opportunity to earn grades and academic credits equivalent to those earned by other students in the class. A student who has been excluded from the classroom for any length of time (with the exception of expelled students) shall be provided the opportunity to make up any missed quizzes, tests, or exams in a timely manner. Additionally, to promote effective reintegration into the classroom following an exclusion, the student shall be provided the opportunity to receive any missed class and homework assignments on a daily basis and turn them in for full credit.

PART 3: ACCOUNTABILITY

Data Monitoring

The overuse, or inequitable use, of harsh disciplinary measures can have a dramatic impact on students, families, schools, and the entire community. As such, all schools are instructed to continually analyze their own data to ensure that disciplinary responses and consequences are being used appropriately and equitably. The data should be used to promote reflective and critical conversations among school staff about any disparities that arise, their causes, their consequences, and how they can be addressed.

Additionally, the district office will monitor each school's use of disciplinary responses and consequences, with a particular focus on out-of-school suspensions, expulsions, and law enforcement involvement, as well as the responses included in Level C of Table One. The overuse of these measures, or any unjustifiable racial or ethnic disparities within their use, shall be cause for corrective action.

Complaint Process

If students or their parents/guardians believe that a school employee other than the principal has violated their rights under this policy or has not followed this policy appropriately, they may file a complaint with their principal. If students or their parents/guardians believe that the principal has violated their rights under this policy, has not followed this policy appropriately, or has not responded appropriately to a complaint, they may file a complaint with the district office. The complaint form is available here: <http://tusd1.org/contents/distinfo/deseg/complaint.asp>. A complaint to the district office may be submitted with any School District employee who will forward it to the principal or principal's designee, the site director and/or Charlotte Brown-Dept. of Student Equity. Students and parents/guardians may also submit a complaint to the district office by calling (520) 225-4316. All complainants shall receive a written response to their complaint within one week of submission.

School Discipline and School Climate Committee

Tucson Unified School District has created a School Discipline and School Climate Committee composed of parents/guardians, students, teachers, administrators, school support staff, and other community members that is empowered to take a more active role in promoting high-quality school disciplinary practices and healthy school climates. The committee members will be provided with the school discipline data and summaries of the complaints described above (without any information that would allow for the identification of any individual person) and shall collect input from school stakeholders (such as through surveys and public meetings), advise district leadership on related policy and budgetary decisions, and submit biannual reports to the Governing Board on the committee's findings and recommendations. This committee can be reached at [\[insert contact info\]](#).

Individual schools are also encouraged to create their own School Discipline and School Climate committees.

APPENDIX 1 VIOLATIONS

Students wearing inappropriate clothing are given an opportunity to change clothing or they will be released from school in the company of the parent/guardian. Students who are unable to comply with the dress code may access TUSD's clothing bank (520) 232-7058.

Bus Rules

Student Behavior Policy Proper student behavior contributes to the overall safety and comfort of the ride to and from school. Following driver directions and all ridership rules is paramount to maintain a safe and enjoyable ride for all. Infractions will be dealt with through the District-approved Student Conduct policies which include driver interventions, the student's principal, and other administrators as deemed appropriate. Riding is a privilege; parents and students should discuss and make sure they know the rules:

- Always comply with bus driver's/monitor's directions
- Use classroom voice only (no profanity/loud noises/threats/intimidation)
- Remain seated; keep hands, feet, and head inside bus
- All personal possessions must be under control at all times
- Keep unauthorized materials and substances off bus (animals, glass objects, weapons, illegal substances, or large objects that occupy a seat space)
- No eating or drinking on the bus

As a last resort, violations of these bus rules may result in the loss of bus privileges for a limited time, not to exceed 30 days.

Safety Precautions for Students

- Know the route to and from the bus stop, safety precautions and common courtesies to be maintained en route and at the bus stop
- Know the correct bus route number
- Discuss what to do if the bus is late in the morning or no one is home in the afternoon
- ALWAYS board/depart the bus at the correct stop as known and approved by the parent

Student Use of Cell Phones And Electronic Devices (Policy JIC)

For purposes of this policy, "electronic devices" include, but are not limited to, cell phones, Mp3 players, iPods, personal digital assistants (PDA's), e-book readers, compact disc players, portable game consoles, cameras, digital scanners, lap top computers, tablet computers and other electronic or battery powered instruments which transmit voice, text, or data from one person to another. Students may possess and use cellular telephones and/or other electronic signaling devices subject to limitations of this and other policies of the District under the following conditions and guidelines:

- Cell phones and/or electronic devices are to be kept out of view in a student's locker, pocket, or a carrying bag.
- Such devices shall not be turned on or used during instructional time, except as authorized by the teacher.
- The principal shall establish additional guidelines appropriate to campus needs.
- Students violating the policy may have the electronic device confiscated and be subject to disciplinary action. Any search of the contents of an electronic device shall be by an administrator in accordance with the Code of Conduct.

Reasonable efforts will be taken to secure property that has been confiscated (i.e. lock the item in a drawer, take the item to the office to be secured in a locked area, etc.); however, neither the District nor staff is responsible for loss, damage, or theft of any electronic device even if loss, damage or theft results from the device being confiscated.

Hazing (Policy JICFA)

There shall be no hazing, solicitation to engage in hazing, or aiding and abetting another who is engaged in hazing of any person enrolled, accepted for or promoted to enrollment, or intending to enroll or be promoted to District schools within twelve (12) calendar months. For purposes of this policy a person as specified above shall be considered a “student” until graduation, transfer, promotion or withdrawal from the District school.

“Hazing” means any intentional, knowing or reckless act committed by a student, whether individually or in concert with other persons, against another student, and in which both of the following apply:

- The act was committed in connection with an initiation into, an affiliation with, or the maintenance of membership in any organization that is affiliated with an education institution
- The act contributes to a substantial risk of potential physical injury, mental harm or degradation, or causes physical injury, mental harm or personal degradation

“Organization” means an athletic team, association, order, society, corps, cooperative, club, or similar group that is affiliated with an educational institution and whose membership consists primarily of students enrolled at that educational institution.

It is no defense to a violation of this policy if the victim consented or acquiesced to hazing. In accord with statute, violations of this policy do not include either of the following:

- Customary athletic events, contests or competitions sponsored by an educational institution
- Any activity or conduct that furthers the goals of a legitimate educational curriculum, a legitimate extracurricular program, or a legitimate military training program

All students, teachers and staff shall take reasonable measures within the scope of their authority to prevent violations of this policy. Students and others may report hazing to any staff member. Staff members must report the incident to the school administrator or next higher administrative supervisor, in writing, with such details as may have been provided. A failure by a staff member to timely inform the school administrator or next higher administrative supervisor of a hazing allegation or their observation of an incident of hazing may subject the staff member to disciplinary action in accord with District policies. The staff member shall preserve the confidentiality of those involved, disclosing the incident only to the appropriate school administrator or next higher administrative supervisor or as otherwise required by law. Any instance of reported or observed hazing which includes possible child abuse or violations of statutes known to the staff member shall be treated in accord with statutory requirements and be reported to a law enforcement agency.

To assure that students and staff are aware of its content and intent, a notice of this policy and procedure shall be posted conspicuously in each school building and shall be made a part of the Rights and Responsibilities section of the student handbook. Forms for submitting complaints are to be available to students and staff in the school offices. Disposition of all reports/complaints shall be reported to the Superintendent. The Superintendent will determine if the policies of the District have been appropriately implemented and will make such reports and/or referrals to the Board as may be necessary.

All violations of this policy shall be treated in accord with the appropriate procedures and penalties provided for in District policies related to the conduct and discipline of students, staff, and others.

APPENDIX 4 STUDENT AND PARENTS RIGHTS

Due Process Rights

Any student whose conduct may warrant suspension or expulsion will be provided due process. This is a legal safeguard that protects the rights of students and their parents and is constitutionally guaranteed.

Due process steps include:

- Oral or written notice to the student of the charges against the student
- An opportunity to present the student's side of the story in an informal hearing or meeting
- The allowance, for safety considerations, for a student to be removed from the school prior to an informal hearing with that hearing to follow as soon as practical
- Adequate notification and an opportunity for a fair hearing
- That parents will be informed in writing of all suspensions and that they have the right to a conference with the principal
- That if parents are not satisfied with any school official's decision they are entitled to request a review by the school official's immediate supervisor
- Formal due process (including a hearing officer) in long-term suspension and expulsion proceedings
- A right to appeal disciplinary decisions to the Assistant Superintendent, Director, Principal, Assistant Principal or Designee.

Due Process For Students With 504 Plans or IEPs

Students with disabilities under Section 504 or IDEA (and students suspected of having a disability) may be disciplined in the same manner as any other student and may be suspended for up to 10 cumulative days of school per school year. If a suspension beyond 10 cumulative days is contemplated, special procedures must be followed. A manifestation determination conference must be held prior to the 11th day of suspension

If the manifestation determination conference concludes that the student's behavior is a manifestation of the student's disability, then no further disciplinary action can be taken. The 504 or IEP team should convene to develop an appropriate behavior plan for the student. If the manifestation determination conference concludes that the student's behavior is not a manifestation of the student's disability, the District may impose whatever long-term suspension or expulsion it would impose under the same circumstances if a non-disabled student were the offender. The District has no obligation to continue to provide educational services to a 504 student during the period of a long-term suspension or expulsion. However, the District must continue to provide educational services for students eligible under IDEA. Please refer to the appropriate Governing Board regulations JKA and JKAB and to the Exceptional Education Handbook for specific procedures

A student with a disability under IDEA may be referred to an Interim Alternative Educational Settings in circumstances involving the use or possession of drugs, weapons, or serious bodily injury. Refer to the Exceptional Education Handbook for specific procedures.

TUSD ANNUAL NOTIFICATION OF PRIVACY RIGHTS OF PARENTS AND STUDENTS

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords parents and "eligible students" (students over 18 years of age, or who attend an institution of postsecondary education) certain rights regarding the student's education records. These rights are:

(1) The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days from the day TUSD receives a request. The parent(s) and/or eligible student may inspect and review student's education records, and TUSD policies and regulations governing use of those records, by making an appointment with the student's school principal. A copy of state and federal statutes and regulations concerning student records is available for reasonable inspection in the Office of the Superintendent or designee, 1010 E. 10th Street, Tucson, Arizona. A list of the types of records maintained, and an explanation of any record, will be provided by appropriate TUSD personnel upon request. Federal law assumes that both parents are equally entitled to review their child's records. If there is a custody order in place that prohibits the provision of this information to one parent, please provide TUSD with a copy of the custody order, signed by a judge.

(2) The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the parent(s) and/or eligible students believes are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights under FERPA. Such a request must be in writing to the student's school principal, must clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and must specify why it should be changed. If TUSD, decides not to amend the record as requested by the parent(s) and/or eligible student, TUSD will notify the parent(s) and/or eligible student of the decision, and the parent(s) and/or eligible student may further request a hearing regarding the request for amendment, as provided by federal and state statutes, rules and regulations.

(3) The right to privacy of personally identifiable information in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. TUSD must obtain the written consent of the parent or eligible student prior to releasing personally identifiable information from the education records of a student, except in circumstances where federal and state law authorize disclosure without consent, such as disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by TUSD as an administrator, supervisor, instructor, or support staff member (including health or medical staff and law enforcement unit personnel); a Governing Board member; a person or company with whom TUSD has outsourced services or functions it would otherwise use its own employees to perform (such as an attorney, auditor, medical consultant, or therapist); a parent or student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee; or a parent, student, or other volunteer assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.

Upon request, schools will disclose education records, without consent, to officials of another school district in which a student seeks or intends to enroll, or is already enrolled if the disclosure is for purposes of the student's enrollment or transfer.

(4) The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by TUSD to comply with the requirements of FERPA. Any complaints arising from an alleged violation of these rights may be submitted to the Superior Court of Pima County, Arizona, or to:

The Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Dep't of Education
400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20202

Directory Information

FERPA requires that TUSD, with certain exceptions, obtain a parent's/guardian's written consent prior to the disclosure of personally identifiable information from your child's education records. However, TUSD may disclose appropriately designated "directory information" without written consent, unless you have advised TUSD to the contrary in accordance with TUSD procedures (see Administrative Regulation 5130). The primary purpose of directory information is to allow TUSD to include this type of information from your child's education records in certain school publications, such as:

- The annual yearbook;
- Honor roll or other recognition lists;
- Graduation programs; and
- Sports activity sheets showing weight/height of team members.

Directory information, which is information that is generally not considered harmful or an invasion of privacy if released, can also be disclosed to outside organizations without a parent's prior written consent. Outside organizations include, but are not limited to, companies that manufacture class rings or publish yearbooks. In addition, two federal laws require local educational agencies (LEAs) receiving assistance under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA) to provide military recruiters, upon request, with the following information – names, addresses and telephone listings – unless parents have advised the LEA that they do not want their student's information disclosed without their prior written consent.

If you do not want TUSD to disclose directory information from your child's education records without your prior written consent, you must notify TUSD on TUSD Form 274, prior to October 1st. TUSD has designated the following information as directory information:

Name, address, parent or guardian telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees (diplomas) and awards received, the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student, personally identifiable photographs, videotapes, films and other visual media, personally identifiable interviews, either audio only or audio and visual, and other similar information.

Under federal law, this information is considered directory information and does not require the written consent of a parent/eligible student to release. If you object to the release of directory information you must notify the principal or designee of the school, in writing, on TUSD Form 274, prior to October 1st. If Form 274 is not received by October 1st, it will be assumed that there is no objection to releasing such information. This procedure shall be done annually. Pursuant to federal law, upon request, TUSD may disclose education records without prior parental/eligible student consent, to officials of another school district in which a student seeks or intends to enroll. For further information, contact the Principal's Office at the school where the student(s) attend in TUSD.

3. Instructional material used as part of the educational curriculum.

These rights transfer from the parents to a student who is 18 yrs old, or an emancipated minor under State law.

TUSD will develop and adopt policies, in consultation with parents, regarding these rights, as well as arrangements to protect student privacy in the administration of protected information surveys and the collection, disclosure, or use of personal information for marketing, sales, or other distribution purposes.

TUSD will directly notify parents of these policies at least annually at the start of each school year and after any substantive changes. TUSD will also directly notify, such as through U.S. Mail or email, parents of students who are scheduled to participate in the specific activities or surveys noted below and will provide an opportunity for the parent to opt his or her child out of participation of the specific activity or survey.

TUSD will make this notification to parents at the beginning of the school year if the District has identified the specific or approximate dates of the activities or surveys at that time. For surveys and activities scheduled after the school year starts, parents will be provided reasonable notification of the planned activities and surveys listed below and be provided an opportunity to opt their child out of such activities and surveys. Parents will also be provided an opportunity to review any pertinent surveys. Following is a list of the specific activities and surveys covered under this requirement:

- Collection, disclosure, or use of personal information for marketing, sales, or other distribution.
- Administration of any protected information survey not funded in whole or in part by ED.
