Welcome To The African American Parent Conference

There is no goal more important than creating and maintaining safe, supportive, and nurturing learning environments for every child in every school.

This year marks the fifth Annual African American Parent Conference and we are grateful you have chosen to take time out of your Saturday to collaborate with us. We thank you for engaging in workshops designed to support you in the continued academic and social development of your child. Initiatives like this year's parent conference are a success because of your active engagement. Research suggests that when schools, families, and communities support each other, students of all backgrounds achieve at higher levels.

Thank you for your commitment.

Academics, Advocacy Empowerment, Equity and Intervention

Note from the Director

Jimmy Hart

We are grateful for the opportunity to serve students in Tucson Unified School District. We are also thankful for the continued collaboration and partnerships established within our Tucson Unified community, and greater Tucson community. Our committed team continues to serve students on a daily basis by fostering success through Academics, Advocacy & Empowerment, Attendance, Behavior & Social Development, and College and Career Readiness (the A, B, C's of what we do). Our work is embedded in our district Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) model. MTSS is designed to help all students succeed.

Over the past four months, we began to restructure how we provide services to our students, families and community. We believe the new structure will improve our ability to implement the A, B, C's of what we do for our students. While it is important to focus on our new structure and services, below lists some accomplishments and highlights from the team of dynamic individuals working in AASSD during the 2018-2019 school year.

SOME ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN THE 2018 - 2019 SCHOOL YEAR

- Provided over $33,000 in scholarships to graduating seniors
- Partnered with TEEM Organization to host more than 700 students at the annual African American Youth Heritage Day Conference
- Hosted our annual African American Parent Conference at Palo Verde HS
- Hosted the annual Black History Month Brain Bowl at Utterback MS
- Collaborated with The State of Black Arizona for a STEM Summit
- Honored more than 1,500 students in grades K-12
- Specialist Jeff Sawyer was named District Classified Employee of the Year (Richard Langford won the prior year)
- Partnered with Pima College & TUSD departments for Parent University
- Provided "Too Cool Tuesday" tutoring at Tucson High School
- Supported schools through job-embedded professional development
- Provided college and career exposure through college visits and tours
- Assisted in boosting enrollment in college course while in high school

What we accomplished in the 2018 - 2019 year could not have been completed without a dedicated team, supportive district leadership and the many community stakeholders. Thank you to our many stakeholders who have invested their time and commitment to help students succeed.
