How We Respond

What could the consequences be for the student?

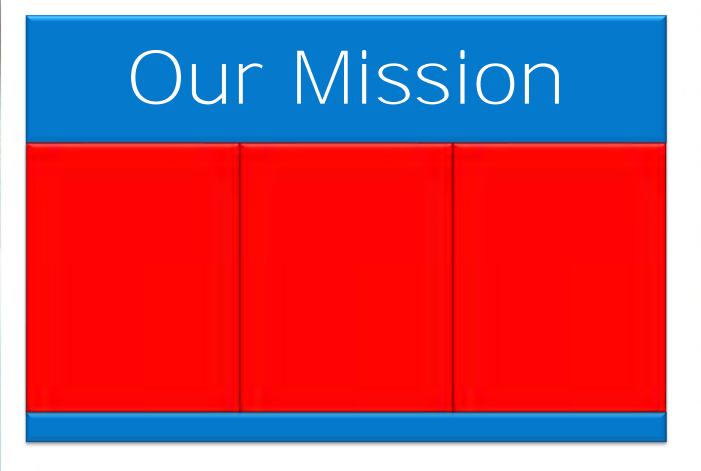

How can the student repair the harm they have done?

Should this have happened?

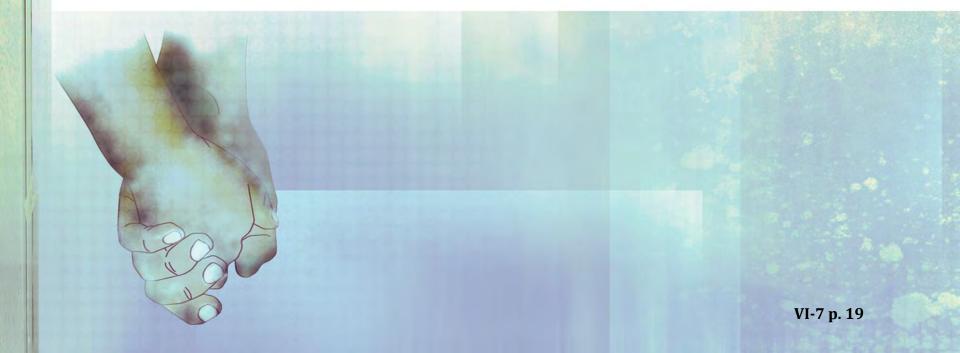

Guidelines for Rights and Responsibilities

Restorative Practices

Positive Behavioral Intervention and Supports

Due Process is a right of a student and parent when a student may be suspended or expelled. The school has an obligation to follow this process to protect a student's rights.

*Only in extreme situations involving safety can disciplinary action be taken before these steps p. 20 are completed.

Appeal of Suspensions

Further Appeal

If the suspension has been upheld or modified after the initial appeal, the student may further appeal by filing a written notice of appeal to the Governing Board within five (5) days after receiving the decision of Elementary, K-8 or Secondary Leadership.

Long-Term

The student may appeal a decision imposing a long-term suspension by *The Governing Board's decision is final. Secondary Leadership within three (3) school days after the date the notice of suspension was received, or within a time limit agreed upon by the student and the Office of Elementary, K-8 or Secondary Leadership during the same three (3) school days.

Steps for Students Concerns

The majority of issues are resolved in the classroom through student and teacher communication.
