TUCSON UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

TUSD African American Student Services Parent Advisory Council Interest Form

Date: April 13, 2021

To: AASSD PAC Members

From: Jimmy Hart, Director African American Student Services

Congratulations!! Welcome to the newly formed TUSD African American Student Services Parent Advisory Council. We look forward to meeting you on April 15, 2021 @5:30pm by Zoom.

We are committed to diversity and recognize the importance of promoting experiences and learning that supports the academic and social needs of our African American students. This commitment drives TUSD to continually engage in conversations and programs that promote appreciation of all and inclusive practices. We look forward to providing a forum to hear your ideas as parents of African American students in TUSD and to respond to those ideas. Below are the expected outcomes for our advisory council, our dates, and the Zoom link for our meeting on Thursday, April 15, 2021 @ 5:30pm. Our first meeting will focus on introductions, an overview of our dept. and a review of our draft strategic plan. We look forward to seeing you and collaborating with you. If you have questions, please give our office a call at 584-7500. Thanks!

Expected Council Outcomes:

The African American Student Services Department Parent Advisory Council will:

- Research and provide recommendations for educating and informing parents of resources.
- Assist in planning and coordinating parent education workshops.
- Attend bi-monthly (every two months) meetings to discuss ideas that promote parent engagement and student achievement.
- Collaborate with the Black History Month planning committee to plan enrichment experiences.

Length of Advisory Council Term and Meeting Dates (Term is one school year):

The Council is expected to meet virtually and/or in person on the dates listed below for one school year. We will ensure a virtual option is provided for all meetings.
